ENTER YOUR TEAM INTO SWS WORLD RANKING!

Sodikart launched the Sodi World Series in 2009. It creates an International Leisure Kart Ranking based on your personal or your team's results over the different SWS races (Sprint or Endurance) that you can enter over the course of the year. The race locations are around the world on all of the tracks partners of the Sodi World Series.

On completion of an SWS approved event, points are allocated to each entrant according to his/her ranking in either Sprint (Individual) and Endurance (Team) events. This ranking is then integrated into the results of the other events organized by the partner tracks located worldwide. Once combined, the rankings from each event are used to establish your International Leisure Kart Ranking and could be your ticket to the Sodi World Series Grand Final in Paris, France.

The four rounds of the Endurance Championship are all official SWS events. The Dubai Kartdrome was honoured as the first race track in the world to organize an SWS official event in March 2009.

Teams registration to the SWS is mandatory if you want to enter any of the Dubai Kartdrome Endurance races, but the good news is that it's completely free of charge for the teams and drivers.

Batelco on top again

Al Mehairi, Mattar and Azzam win second round of Endurance Championship

That's it: Batelco Racing's Saeed Al Mehairi raises his arms in celebration as he crosses the finish line at the Dubai Kartdrome.

By Staff Reporter @Sport360
saeed@report360.com

Batelco Racing extended their excellent run as Saeed Al Mehairi, Mohammed Mattar and Ramez Azzam made it two out of two after winning the second round of the Endurance Championship at Dubai Kartdrome.

A total of 29 teams lined up for the famous Le Mans style running start of the race on the 1.245 kilometre Switchback Circuit at Dubai Kartdrome. The 600-lap endurance race started at 19:00 on Friday and took almost 13 hours to finish by Saturday morning.

Azzam got Batelco Racing off to a great start by topping the table during qualifying with a lap time of 1:10.620, just 0.030s ahead of arch-rivals CG Racing Pro and 0.051s ahead of Bin Drai Karting Team in third.

CG Racing Pro got the jump on the pole sitter on the opening lap, but it only took a few trips around the track for Azzam to regain the lead for Batelco. From there it was a tight race between the two heavy-weight teams, with Bin Drai Karting Team and Zoom Racing Team intermittently challenging for the front as well.

Methodical strategy and relentless pace throughout the night kept Batelco Racing just out of reach of rival teams. Al Mehairi wrapped up the 600th lap and crossed the finish line 31.650 seconds ahead of Alban Varutti of CG Racing Pro. The overall win gave Batelco Racing their second Pro Class victory in a row, with CG Racing Pro having to settle for second place both times and Bin Drai Karting Team also repeating their third place finish. Team representative Ali Abbas of Batelco Racing said: "The team did a fantastic job. The crew and drivers followed the strategy from the beginning. We worked hard and pushed, and the strategy worked really nice for us."

Team Emirates topped the Corporate Class for the second round in a row, despite early setbacks which had two Choueiri Group (CG) teams out in front for the first half of the race. They eventually regained the lead, taking the class win. CG Racing 1 took home second place silverware in the Corporate division, while IUM Racing claimed third.

In the Nations Cup, for drivers of the same nationality, Zoom Racing Team achieved an upset victory over Dubai Falcon Racing Team. Zoom suffered a spin out on the opening lap, dropping down to last place on the grid, but the Indian drivers managed to claw back into the race and finish an astonishing fourth place overall.

It was a maiden Nations Cup win for Zoom Racing, followed by the all-Emirati Dubai Falcon Racing Team in second place and Lakoi Racing Team of Russia in third.
